Information for Child Care Providers

Examples of 'appropriate support organisations' in Western Australia

Useful Resources	Aboriginal Health Council of Western Australia (ACHWA) W: https://www.ahcwa.org.au/ ACHWA is the peak body for Aboriginal Community Controlled Health Services (ACCHSs) in Western Australia. Governed by an Aboriginal Board of Directors who represents all regions in Western Australia, AHCWA aims to promote and strengthen the ACCHSs' model of care. A model that is built around the delivery of comprehensive, holistic, and culturally secure primary health care services. Perth Aboriginal Resources Directory – Ruah W: https://view.publitas.com/ruah-community-services-1/ard_2018_v1/page/1 This resource directory is produced to support Aboriginal people's access to the services that exist in the Perth community. It is available on the website (www.ruah.com.au) electronically for interested individuals and agencies to access. Western Australia Early Years Networks Early Years Networks across Western Australia play a fundamental role in supporting young children and their families. Each Network consists of representative groups in a community with an interest in children's well-being. The Network provides a strong platform for positive outcomes based on collaborative relationships between local communities and government and non-government agencies. W: https://eyn.dropin.org.au/display/EYN/EYN+Home The Early Years Network Directory provides information regarding Early Years Networks across Western Australia. You can find the location of your nearest Early Years Network here: https://eyn.dropin.org.au/display/EYN/Western+Australia+Early+Years+Networks+Directory The Connecting Early Years Network Portal contains information and resources for service providers regarding children and families. http://eyn.dropin.org.au/display/EYN/EYN+Home
